

CURE BREAST CANCER FOUNDATION

support survivors to conquer their past
hope to find a cure in the future

Cure Breast Cancer Foundation, Inc. is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit foundation created to raise money for breast cancer research at the world-renowned Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York. CBCF is a product of one child's dedication to her mother's cause; it began when Carly Abramson, whose mother, Lisa, was diagnosed with breast cancer, made a beaded key ring as a comfort gift. She then decided to sell the key rings to raise money for breast cancer research and donated over $10,000 to Dr. Norton. In December 2007, Carly founded CBCF with help from her father, Andrew Abramson, president and chief executive officer of Value Companies. CBCF donates 100% of its net fundraising proceeds for research by Dr. Larry Norton and colleagues at the Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center on the growth and spreading of breast cancer cells.
